SHELTON STATE TO OFFER A "HOW -TO OF HOLLYWOOD"

Former Tuscaloosan Beth Albright will present a series of workshops over the next several weeks on "how-to" topics taken from her life a broadcaster and actress in New York and Hollywood. Offered as part of Shelton State Community College's continuing education program, several seminars will be presented in the evening and one on Saturday on how to "make it in Hollywood."

Some of the areas scheduled to be covered by Ms. Albright include Hollywood and how it works, the unions, agents, life in L.A., acting tips, and script breakdown. Born and raised in Tuscaloosa, Ms. Albright moved to New York after college. Some of her credits include appearances on programs such as "Days of our Lives," "The Bold and the Beautiful," "The Young and the Restless," as well as numerous commercials, voice work, and her own radio and television talk show.

Ms. Albright will offer the program in two evening sessions. The first session will be March 1, 2, and 4 and the second session will be held March 8, 9, and 11. The time will be from 7-10 p.m. and the cost will be $45 per person.

To register for either of the seminars, contact June Hogue, 391-2414. Checks should be made out and mailed to: The Shelton State Foundation, 202 Skyland Boulevard, Tuscaloosa, Al 35405. For additional information, contact Mrs. Hogue or Martha Ann Hill, 391-2261.

ALABAMA FIRE COLLEGE TO OFFER EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN PROGRAM

The Alabama Fire College is offering the Emergency Medical Technician-Basic Course beginning May 24, 1993. Classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. at the Alabama Fire College, 2015 McFarland Blvd. East., Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Registration for this class should be made at the Alabama Fire College prior to May 24, 1993. Course fee is $75.00.

Course text is Emergency Care and Transportation of the Sick and Injured, 5th Edition, AAOS, and is available at the Alabama Fire College Bookstore. Class is limited to 40 students. For additional information, call Lynn Donley, 759-1508.

PERFORMING ARTS SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE AT SHELTON STATE

Applications for Performing Arts Scholarships at Shelton State Community College must be returned to the college by march 1, 1993.

Students who wish to audition for a scholarship in music, art, theatre and dance should apply as soon as possible. Applications may be obtained from the dean of students office on the Skyland Boulevard Campus. Auditions will be held by appointment March 19-20. For additional information on the scholarships, contact Linda Grote, 391-2262.

PHI THETA KAPPA NEW MEMBERS

Twenty-one eligible Shelton State students will soon join Phi Theta Kappa, an international organization of scholars from 900 two-year colleges across the United States, Canada and abroad.

Shelton State's Alpha Epsilon Iota chapter of Phi Theta Kappa , the two-year college honor society, will initiate students based on their overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.5 or above. They must also have completed 12 semester hours at Shelton State Community College.

The prospective members include: Shannon Ball, Rhonda Billings, Linda Blalock, Mary Kay Boothe, Edward Brannon, Angel Burroughs, Mary Xan Chandler, Lisa Combs, Charles Houston Dale, Heath Deason, Christopher Driver, Wetona Franklin, Ronald Hamner, Jeannette Huglin, Artilya Jones, Kathleen Munn, Leah Perdue, James Rogers, Rebecca Runnels, Marvin Walker and Gina Webb.

The new members will be encouraged to assist Alpha Epsilon Iota in meeting their goals in the four categories of scholarship, leadership, fellowship and service.

"We consider these the best students," chapter advisor, Brenda Ryan said. She continued by stressing the focus not only on the development of their scholarship skills, but also on the other hallmark skills. The chapter will develop scholarships by exploring the concepts of the national Phi Theta Kappa them, "Our Complex World-Balancing Unity and Diversity," offered in a humanities class.

The chapter service project includes a recycling program for the Shelton State campus. Other service projects will be considered throughout the year. The chapter attends several conventions regionally and nationally. This year's national convention will be held in April, in Dallas, Texas. New members are encouraged to participate.

LIBRARY EXHIBITS WORKS OF HARVEY STELL

Local retired businessman Harvey Stell is currently exhibiting a collection of his works at Shelton State Community College through March 26.

The exhibit is located in the college's Skyland Boulevard Campus library and is open to the public during regular library hours: Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m. -9 p.m. and Friday , 8 a.m.-4 p.m.

Painting in a natural primitive style, Stell's subjects range from animals to landscapes to house scapes. Stell began taking art classes several years ago under the college's Adult Studies program and studied under former Shelton art instructor, Bethany Windham Engle. He has exhibited his collection of paintings through the West Alabama Art Association as well as in the public library. For additional information on the exhibit, contact Deborah Grimes, director of library services at the college, 391-2233.

THE ARTS COUNCIL OF TUSCALOOSA NOW HAS A HOTLINE

The Arts Council of Tuscaloosa has developed the Tuscaloosa Arts Hotline, a toll-free number which lists cultural events. People across Alabama will have access to complete arts information in Tuscaloosa County via the number. The Tuscaloosa Arts Hotline will operate 24 hours a day, providing brief, up-to-date information about performances, exhibits, special events and children's activities. The announcements will be professionally produced by WUAL. The toll-free number is 1-800-239-1611.
